UNIVERSIDAD INTERNACIONAL MENÉNDEZ PELAYO (UIMP)

The Universidad Internacional Menéndez Pelayo (UIMP) is the Spanish Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport's university institution specialised in teaching Spanish. Founded in 1932, and envisaged as a high culture centre, renowned academics, scientists, politicians, designers, and other professionals in all areas of knowledge from Spain and overseas, are invited to teach in Santander at La Magdalena Palace, on Las Llamas Campus, and at different sites across Spain.

The university's main site in Santander is located on Las Llamas Campus (Avenida de los Castros, 42), the permanent base for Spanish courses throughout the year.

During summer, Spanish courses run in addition to continuous vocational seminars for professionals at La Magdalena Palace. Students have free access to a wide international selection, alongside an excellent packed programme of cultural activities.

WHY STUDY SPANISH AT UIMP?

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

UIMP has a consolidated prestigious reputation in the organisation of Spanish courses and a teaching staff selected from the best Spanish and foreign universities. All the programmes, levels and accreditations are adapted to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Students from over 50 countries and from internationally renowned institutions choose UIMP to improve their Spanish.

CULTURAL EXCELLENCE

That excellent academic programme is complemented by free and open access to a varied programme of cultural activities organised by UIMP. In conjunction with the city's own cultural events –Santander International Festival, the summer programme, etc.– the activities make Santander an international reference point for high culture during the summer.

UNIQUE SURROUNDINGS

Situated in the part of the peninsula known as Green Spain, Santander has one of the most beautiful bays in Europe. It is the capital of Cantabria, a favourite Spanish tourist destination owing to its wealth of nature and landscapes, which combine sea and high mountains within a few kilometres of each other. It has very diverse ecosystems, fantastic cuisine, and a multitude of sporting and leisure activities to suit everyone's tastes.
