

SUMMARY

Every year, the NATO Allied Command Operations Office of Legal Affairs, organizes a conference to create esprit de corps for the NATO Legal Community, which includes NATO and national lawyers. This gathering also promotes the exchange of experiences and initiatives with regard to recurrent and new challenging legal matters. This year, the conference will be dedicated to the 70th Anniversary of the North Atlantic Treaty and the topics to be discussed include: Historical aspects of NATO, North Atlantic Treaty from its inception until today, the NATO general multilateral treaties, immunities of international organizations and the complex matter relating to legal resilience/lawfare.

The event is organized in conjunction with the International University Menéndez- Pelayo (UIMP) and gathers legal advisors from NATO and national legal offices, other international organizations and subject matter experts from several universities and research centres. A selected group of students from the UIMP are also invited to attend.
